Community Meeting Room Policy and Regulations

Adopted January 17, 2012
Revised November 8, 2022

Purpose:

The North Chicago Public Library serves an increasingly diverse population in the City of North Chicago. Our mission is to provide quality library services and resources to help the people in the city of North Chicago. This policy outlines the Library Community Meeting Room rental/fees and the use of the facilities. The meeting room may be booked by submitting a completed Community Meeting Room Agreement Application and Facilities Users Release Form.

I. General Guidelines

The use of the community meeting room space by an organization does not constitute library sponsorship, viewpoints, or endorsement of the organization or the activities. Advertisements or announcements that either directly or indirectly imply otherwise shall not be permitted. Failure to conform to these regulations may result in immediate suspension of meeting room privileges.

A. Groups cannot use the library's address or phone number as the organization's contact point.

B. All publicity indicates that the North Chicago Public Library is not a sponsor of the organization's program.

The policies governing the use of the meeting rooms at the North Chicago Public Library are based on Article 5 of The Library Bill of Rights: As an institution/organization of education for democratic living, NCPL welcomes the use of its meeting room for cultural, civic, and educational activities. Meeting space is available on an equal basis to all groups in the community, regardless of the beliefs and affiliations of its members.

II. Exclusions

The following groups are excluded from using the meeting rooms:

Group meetings for a social or private function. (Example: showers, birthday parties, repasts, reunions, weddings, all religious services.)

A. Groups intending to hold meeting which would interfere with the work of the Library because of noise or other factors as reasonably determined by the Library Director.

III. Facilities (See application for meeting room).

IV. Reservations

A. Reservations are not final until payment is made and a Facilities User Release Form is returned to the Circulation Department. The Circulation Department will maintain a Schedule of fees. Circulation Department staff will issue a receipt following payment and completion of the Meeting Room Application and User Release Form.

Library sponsored groups shall have the first choice of time. Reservations will be taken on a first come-first-serve-basis. Repeated cancellations or unused reservations result in denial of meeting room use. Groups should check in with Circulation Department at the front desk before entering the room they have reserved.

Meetings must be reserved 3 days in advance but no more than 4 weeks in advance.

Anything after that is at the discretion of the library. Last minute reservations cannot be accommodated. The library reserves the right to limit the amount of times a group may meet in a month to allow other groups the opportunity to use the facility.

B. Cancellation of meetings must be made at least 24 hours before the scheduled time via notification.

C. The Library reserves the right to refuse any group, either because the nature of its activities is in conflict with library regulations or scheduling, or because of the group previously disregarded the library policies and regulations.

V. Fees

The community meeting room will be rented out for 3 hours for $45.00 or $60.00 with food. Extra time will be $15.00 per additional hour based on availability. Non-for-profit, community-based organizations can use the community meeting room for no charge. There will be an additional $10.00 fee for the room clean-up if necessary. All fees for damage shall be paid within thirty days. Failure to do so shall result in forfeiture of the right to use the meeting room facilities. It is at the discretion of the library whether to extend past the scheduled time of the event.

VI. Hours

Meetings may be held on days the Library is open from 9:00am-7:45pm, Monday through Thursday and from 9:00am-4:45pm on Friday and Saturday. The Library is closed on Sunday. General admittance of group representatives for preparation and meetings shall be no earlier than fifteen minutes before the meetings start. Meetings should conclude 15 minutes prior to the Library closing. Only meetings which are sponsored or co-sponsored by the library may be scheduled at times when the library is closed.
